Obituary

Ole Thompson

EARLY SETTLER IN ARENA TWP. DIES

End Came to Ole Thompson White Still Up and About Yard-
Buried in Hinckley Cemetery

Gradually failing in health for several years past, Ole Thompson, died at his home in Gettysburg about five o'clock Saturday afternoon. The end came apparently as the result of a heart attack, Mr. Thompson having been stricken while in the yard near his home.

Ole Thompson was one of the group who settled in Arena township in 1883, where he resided until retiring from active work in 1918, when he moved to Gettysburg.

Funeral services were conducted from the home Monday at 2:30 P.M., with Rev. H. M. Bauer officiating, and burial was made in the Hinckley Cemetery. The following sketch was read:

Ole Thompson was born December 15, 1853, in Christianna, Norway. he was baptized into the Christian faith shortly after his birth and in due time, having been instructed in the chief parts of the Christian doctrine, renewed his baptismal vow and vowed faithfulness unto death. As far as man can tell he kept his vow.

On May 1st, 1880, he arrived in his new country, American with his bride Carolina Olsen, whom he had taken unto himself as a wife before leaving Norway. To this union five children were born, two of whom, have preceded their father into eternity. The children are Mrs. Joe Rhombs of Lebanon, S.D., Matilda and Oscar of Gettysburg. There are also two sisters of Mr. Thompson who are surviving him, Mrs. Marit Johnson, Kasson, Minn., and Mrs. Mary Hovland, Hayfield, Minn., and one brother in Norway. There are also three grand children. Besides these he is being mourned by his beloved wife to whom we extend our sympathy.

Mr. Thompson was a member of Emmanuel congregation of Gettysburg and we sincerely hope and can confidently trust that he has now entered into life prepared for all the children of God. He died last Saturday night at 5 o'clock at the age of 75 years, 9 months, 6 days.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our thanks to neighbors and friends for the kind words of sympathy, friendly assistance and floral tributes extended at the time surrounding the death and burial of our husband and father, Ole Thompson.

Mrs. Carolina Thompson

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rhombs and family

1.1.2 Ole Thorsen Prestegaardseie THOMPSON

Birth: 12/16/1853, Prestegaardseie, Vaage, Gudbrandsdalen, Norway
Death: 9/21/1929, Gettysburg, South Dakota
Occupation: Shoemaker, Farmer

DOB Circa 15 Jan 1855 (note)

On his confirmation record in the Vaage Church Records, his name is listed as Ole Thorsen Rundhaugen. This is probably where he was living at the time of his confirmation. His place of birth is listed as Prestegaardseie. Confirmed 20 Jun 1870, page 224<sup>4</sup>

Death certificate lists age at death of 74 years, 9 months, 6 days; also lists his father's name as Thor Thompson rather than Thor Thorson (letter 6 Apr 1993, Clerk of Court).

"I remember hearing my mother tell that Grandpa changed his name to Thompson because people had trouble remembering his name and calling him Thompson" (letter from Comeau, 29 Apr 1929).

"Mr. and Mrs. Thompson came to Dakota Territory from Christiana (now Oslo), Norway, May 1, 1880 and lived at Centerville where Ole worked as a shoemaker.

In 1883 they came to Arena Township. and filed on a homestead, also taking a tree claim and a pre-emption. Half of this land still remains in the family, having been passed down through four generations over the past 100 years.

In 1918 they retired and moved into Gettysburg. Ole was influential in getting two of his nephews to come to this country and establish homes. He made two trips back to Norway and was planning to go again when he passed away suddenly in September 1929. Carolina never wanted to go back. She felt that saying goodbye would be too painful. She lived to be almost 90 years old and passed away at the home of her granddaughter in November 1944...

Of the 8 grandchildren only one, Anna Rhombs Comeau, still lives in Gettysburg" (from a centennial book, in letter from Comeau).

"Mary was very short and thin. Della used to say she could hardly have weighed 100 pounds. She did a lot of handwork, knit all the kids socks. Had at least one miscarriage. Was working in the field with Ole and started to feel bad. Went into the house, had the miscarriage, cooked a meal for him, cleaned up and then told him about it later. Carroll says she always referred to Ole as the old man. Mary never cut her hair. Always wore it up in a bun help by bone hair pins. Always had sugar

Map Reference – showing Rundhaugen Farm

Some Source Information about Ole Thorsen Rundhaugen and His Wife Caroline Olsdatter Brataasvedjan

The Rundhaugen farm can probably be located on the map at <https://norgeskart.no> . Using this map, the following image shows Stjordal in the upper right and Vagamo in the lower left. These are significant locations in terms of the church records that have been located. Stjordal is the parish in which Ole and Caroline were married and the church at Vagamo is likely the one where Ole was baptized.

A map showing parish boundaries can be found at <https://norwayparishes.com/>. Look for Vågå in Oppland County and Stjordal in Nord-Trøndelag.

Ole's Emigration from Trondheim, Norway, 03-May-1881

You can notice that this time in early 1881 was a busy time. Within less than a month, Ole moved from the Vaaga area to the Trondheim area, married Caroline, and two days after the marriage sailed for the USA. Youth is a wonderful thing!

I have written a separate document about their travel from Norway to Sioux Falls, SD. It is entitled "Ole Goes to Sioux Falls" and it can be found at my website, <https://281connections.us> . Ole and Caroline traveled separately – Caroline months after Ole (and after giving birth to a son named Ole).

Obituary

Death Removes Arena Twp. Pioneer Woman

11-16-44
Mrs. Caroline Thompson, 88, pioneer Potter County woman, died Monday, the 13th, at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Leo Comeau, north of Gettysburg. Funeral service was scheduled at 2:00 this (Thursday) afternoon, at the Lutheran Church with Rev. B. A. Borgschatz, of Akaska, officiating. Burial will be at Prairie Grove cemetery in Arena Township.

Caroline Olson was born in Oslo Norway, January 27, 1856. She was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran Church, and continued membership until death. She was united in marriage to Ole Thompson, and shortly thereafter they came to the United States. They lived at Dell Rapids for about a year, then moved to Arena Township, Potter County, where they lived until retirement in 1918, when they moved to Gettysburg.

Following Mr. Thompson's death in 1929, she remained in her home until she became crippled and no longer able to care for herself. She made her home with her granddaughter for the past seven years.

She is survived by one son, Oscar Thompson, of Hoven, a daughter, Mrs. Tena Rhombs, of Lebanon, seven grandchildren, Arnes, Darrel, Lory and Bonnie Thompson, Anna Comeau, Vern Rhombs and Robert Rhombs, the latter with the armed forces in France, and two great-grandchildren, Phyllis Rae and Bobby Lee Comeau, as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

Although afflicted and unable to get about, Grandma Thompson remained cheerful and contented to the end. She will be sadly missed by both relatives and friends.

Hurtigsøk, to personer:  Etterfølgjande person  Personar på same gard

Hurtigsøk for folketeljingar vil søka etter namn for ein eller fleire personar på same gard/hus samstundes. Bak søkefeltet kan ein velja om ein vil søka etter personar som står ettervarande (t.d. ektepar) eller personar som bur på same gard, t.d foreldre og barn. Skriv t.d. pet ann vil systemet leita etter ein gard der det finst personar med namn som börjar på pet og ann. Skriv du pet/h ann vil systemet leita etter same gardane, med der første personene sitt etternamn börjar på h. Du kan la vera å skriva tredje namnet om du vil ha alle dåpane til foreldre. Om du berre vil ha dåpar i ein periode skriv du perioden til slutt. ole hans ann 1840-60.

All søking skjer på ord. Søkjer du etter førenamn lik Liv vil du også få både Anne Liv og Liv Marit. I boks A ovanfor kan du velja kva felt du vil søka i. I boks C vel du kva du vil søka etter og i B koreis du vil søka. Vel du Alle ord får du opp ei liste med alle orda. NB! Dette valet får du berre dersom databasen er på under 1000 postar eller førre søk gav deg under 1000 treff.

Avanserte søkeomgrep: ? kva som helst bokstav, * ingen, ein eller mange bokstavar, [a] bokstaven kan vera der, [a,b] ein av bokstavane må vera der. Du kan også bruka bindestrek. 1891-1900 vil finna alle år i denne perioden, d-f alle termar som börjar på d til og med f. Du kan også setja % framom ein term. Då vil systemet setja inn hovelege hakar, samstundes som vokalar midt i blir tatt bort. börjar på %agt burde finna alle variantar av agate. Om du vil kan du setja opp søkekrav både for gard/hus/hending og for person.
